Share Capital

- 5. The Share capital of the Company shall be such as given under Clause V of the Memorandum of Association as altered from time to time. The Company shall have the power to increase, reduce or re-classify the capital for the time being into several classes and to attach thereto respectively such preferential, deferred, qualified or special rights, privileges or conditions as may be determined by or in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Applicable Law and to vary, modify or abrogate any such rights, privileges or conditions in such manner as may for the time being be provided by these Articles.

The Company may increase its subscribed capital on exercise of an option attached to the debentures issued or loans raised by the Company to convert such debentures or loans into shares in the Company.

- 6. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles, the shares in the capital of the company shall be under the control of the Directors who may issue, allot or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them to such persons, in such proportion and on such terms and conditions and either at a premium or at par and at such time as they may from time to time think fit.
- 7. If the Company offers any of its shares to the public for subscription, such offer shall be made in accordance with the provisions of Chapter III and IV, and other relevant provisions of the Act, regulations framed by SEBI under SEBI Act and other Applicable Laws.
- 8. Except so far as is otherwise provided, by the conditions of issue or by these presents, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered part of the existing capital of the Company and shall be subject to all the provisions herein contained in respect of payment of call and instalments, transfer and transmission, forfeiture, lien and otherwise.
- 9.
  - (i) Unless the shares have been issued in dematerialized form in terms of Applicable Laws, every person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members shall be entitled to receive within two months after incorporation, in case of subscribers to the memorandum or after allotment or within one month after the application for the registration of transfer or transmission or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall be provided,—
    - (a) one certificate for all his shares without payment of any charges; or

- (b) several certificates, each for one or more of his shares, upon payment of twenty rupees for each certificate after the first.
- (ii) Every certificate shall be under the seal of the Company which shall be affixed in the presence of and signed by two Directors duly authorised by the Board and the Secretary, if any or some other person appointed by the Board for the purpose. Further out of the two directors there shall be at least one director other than Managing or whole time director, where the Composition of the Board so permits.
- (iii) Every certificate shall specify the shares to which it relates and the amount paid-up thereon.
- (iv) In respect of any share or shares held jointly by several persons, the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.
- (v) Shares may be registered in the name of any persons, company or other body corporate. Not more than four persons shall be registered jointly as members in respect of any shares. No shares shall, however, be registered in the name of partnership or a person of unsound mind.

- (i) Subject to the provisions of section 46 of the Act and rules made thereunder, if any share certificate be worn out, defaced, mutilated or torn or if there be no further space on the back for endorsement of transfer, then upon production and surrender thereof to the company, a new certificate may be issued in lieu thereof, and if any certificate is lost or destroyed then upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the company and on execution of such indemnity as the company deem adequate, a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be issued. Every certificate under this Article shall be issued on payment of twenty rupees for each certificate.
- (ii) The provisions of Articles 8 and 9 shall mutatis mutandis apply to debentures of the company.
- (iii) Where a new share certificate has been issued in pursuance of Article 9, particulars of every such certificate shall also be entered in a register of duplicate certificates indicating against the name of the person to whom the certificate is issued, the number and date of issue of the certificate in lieu of which the new certificate is issued.

11. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and the company shall not be bound by, or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share, or any interest in any fractional part of a share, or (except only as by these Articles or by law otherwise provided) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

- (i) The company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by section 40 (6) of the Act, provided that the rate per cent or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by that section and rules made thereunder.
- (ii) The rate or amount of the commission shall not exceed five per cent of the price at which any shares are issued or two and a half per cent of the price at which any debentures are issued (as the case may be) and shall not in any case exceed the rate or amount prescribed in rules made under section 40 (6) of the Act.
- (iii) The commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in the one way and partly in the other.
- (iv) A copy of the contract for payment of commission is delivered to the registrar at the time of delivery of the prospectus for registration.

- (v) The Company may also on any issue of shares or debentures pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

Issue of Preference Share Capital

13. Subject to the provisions of Section 55 of the Act, rules made thereunder and Applicable Laws, the Company shall have the power to issue preference shares which are or at the option of the Company are liable to be redeemed within a period not exceeding twenty years from the date of issue, or such other period as provided in law and the resolution authorising such issue shall prescribe the manner, terms and conditions of redemption.

Issue of Sweat Equity Shares

14. Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 53 of the Act but subject to the provisions of section 54 of the Act read with rules made there under and in accordance with the regulations made by the SEBI and Applicable Laws, the Company may issue Sweat Equity Shares i.e. shares issued to Employees or Directors at a discount or for consideration other than cash for providing know-how or making available rights in the nature of intellectual property rights or value additions, by whatever name called, of a class of shares already issued if the following conditions are fulfilled:
- (a) The issue of Sweat Equity Shares is authorized by a special resolution passed by the Company in the General Meeting;
  - (b) The Resolution specifies the number of shares, their current market price, consideration if any and the class or classes of Directors or Employees to whom such equity shares are to be issued.
15. The rights, limitations, restrictions and provisions as are for the time being applicable to equity shares shall be applicable to the sweat equity shares issued under this section and the holders of such shares shall rank pari-passu with other equity shareholders.

Variation of Shareholders' Rights

16. If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class, (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class), may, subject to the provisions of Section 48 of the Act, and whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three fourths of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.
17. To every such separate meeting, the provisions of these articles relating to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply.
18. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari-passu therewith.

Lien

19.

- (i) The company shall have a first and paramount lien—
- (a) on every share not being a fully paid share, whether solely or jointly, for all monies (whether presently payable or not) called, or payable at a fixed time, in respect of that share; and
  - (b) on all shares (not being fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of a single person, for all monies presently payable by him or his estate to the company:

Provided that the Board of directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this clause.

Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any on such shares.

- (ii) The company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable and bonuses declared from time to time in respect of such shares.

20. The company may sell, in such manner as the Board thinks fit, any shares on which the company has a lien:

Provided that no sale shall be made—

- (a) unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable; or
- (b) until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or insolvency.

Provided that the shares of any member who is indebted to the Company may be sold by resolution of the Directors, to satisfy the Company's lien thereof, and be transferred to the purchaser without the consent and notwithstanding any opposition on the part of the indebted member and complete title to the share of any such member which shall be sold and transferred against indebted member and all persons claiming under him whether he may be indebted to the company in fact or not shall stand transferred and thereupon, the point of the purchaser shall be deemed to be the holder of such shares discharged from all dues and calls made prior to such purchase, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor his titles to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings with reference to the sale.

- (i) To give effect to any such sale, the Board may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof.
- (ii) The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer.
- (iii) The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale and after name of the purchaser has been entered in the Register in respect of such shares the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person on any ground whatsoever and the remedy of any person aggrieved by such sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.
- (iv) Where any share has been sold by the Board pursuant to these Articles and the certificate in respect thereof has not been delivered to the Company by the former holder of such share, the Board may issue a new certificate for such share distinguishing it in such manner as it may think fit from the certificate not so delivered. Where in any such case the certificate in respect of the share forfeited and/or sold is not delivered, and a new certificate for such share has been issued, the original certificate shall be treated as cancelled and no claim or title based on such certificate shall be binding on the Company.

- (i) The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable.
  - (ii) The residue, if any, shall, subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale, be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

Calls on shares

- 23.
- (i) The Board may, from time to time, subject to the provisions of section 49 of the Act, make calls upon the members in respect of any monies unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium).
Provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call.
  - (ii) Each member shall, subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment, pay to the company, at the time or times and place so specified, the amount called on his shares.
  - (iii) A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board.

24. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed and may be required to be paid by instalments.

25. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.

- 26.
- (i) If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest thereon from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such per cent per annum, if any, as the Board may determine from time to time.
  - (ii) The Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of any such interest wholly or in part.

- 27.
- (i) Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall, for the purposes of these Articles, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue such sum becomes payable.
  - (ii) In case of non-payment of such sum, all the relevant provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

28. On the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought by the Company against any member or his representative to recover any debt or claim any money due to the Company in respect of his share, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the defendant is, or was, when the claim arose, on the Register as a member or one of the members in respect of the shares for which such claim is made, and that the amount claimed is not entered as paid in the books of the Company, and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Board who made any call, nor that a quorum was present at the Board meeting at which any call was made nor that the meeting at which any call was made was duly convened or constituted, nor any other matter whatsoever, but the proof of matters, aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

29. The Board—

- (a) may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the monies uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him; and
- (b) upon all or any of the monies so advanced, may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding, unless the company in general meeting shall otherwise direct, twelve per cent per annum, as may be agreed upon between the Board and the member paying the sum in advance. Money so paid in excess of the amount of calls shall not rank for dividends or to participate in profits. The Board may at any time repay the amount so advanced upon giving to such member not less than 3 months' notice in writing. However, it shall not be the right of the member making such payment in advance of call to seek or to claim a refund or prepayment thereof.
- (c) from time to time, at its discretion, extend the time fixed for the payment of any call, and may extend such time as to all or any of the members, but no member shall be entitled to such extension save as a matter of grace and favour.

Transfer of shares

- 30. The transfer of share in dematerialization form shall be governed through Depository Act 1996 and rules and regulations made thereunder.
- 31. Save as provided in Section 56 of the Act, no transfer of a share shall be registered unless a proper instrument of transfer duly stamped and executed by or on behalf of the transferor and by or on behalf of the transferee has been delivered to the Company together with the certificate or, if no such certificate is in existence, the letter of allotment of the share. The instrument of transfer is in respect of one class of shares.
The Company shall keep a "Register of Transfers" and therein shall be fairly and distinctly entered particulars of every transfer and transmission of any shares.
- 32. The transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof. Where it is proved to the satisfaction of Board that an instrument of transfer signed by or on behalf of transferor and by or on behalf of the transferee has been lost, the Company may, if the Directors think fit, on an application in writing made by the transferee and bearing the stamp required by an instrument of transfer, register the transfer on such terms as to indemnity as the Board may think fit.
- 33. Application for the registration of the transfer of a share may be made either by the transferor or the transferee provided that, where such application is made by the transferor, no registration shall, in the case of a partly paid share, be effected unless the Company gives notice of such partly paid shares to the transferee in the manner prescribed by Section 56 of the Act, and subject to provisions of these Articles, the Company shall, unless objection is made by the transferee, within two weeks from the date of receipt of the notice, enter in the Register the name of the transferee in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if the application for registration of transfer was made by the transferee.

34. The Board may, subject to the right of appeal conferred by section 58 of the Act and Section 22A of Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 and other Applicable Laws, without assigning any reason for such refusal, may within one month from the date of which the instrument of transfer was delivered to the Company decline to register—
- (a) the transfer of a share, not being a fully paid share, to a person of whom they do not approve;
  - or
  - (b) any transfer of shares on which the company has a lien.

Provided that registration of transfer shall not be refused on the ground of the transferor being either alone or jointly with any person or persons indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever except a lien on the shares.

35. No transfer shall be made to or registered in the name of a person of unsound mind or a partnership or trust.
36. On giving not less than seven days' previous notice in accordance with section 91 and rules made thereunder, the registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine:

Provided that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days at any one time or for more than forty-five days in the aggregate in any year.

37. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of the Articles of Association, where any instrument of transfer of shares has been delivered to the Company for registration and the transfer of such shares has not been registered by the Company, the provisions of Section 126 of the Act regarding dividend, any offer of Rights Shares and any issue of fully paid-up Bonus Shares in relation to such shares shall apply.

Transmission of Shares

38. If any member of the Company dies, and the Company, through any of its Principal Officers, within the meaning of Section 84 of the Estate Duty Act, 1953, has knowledge of the death, it shall not be lawful for the Company to register the transfer of any shares standing in the name of the deceased member unless the Company is satisfied that the transferee has acquired such transfer for valuable consideration or there is produced to it a certificate from the Controller, Deputy Controller or Assistant Controller of Estate Duty that either the estate duty in respect thereof or the money due as the case may be had been paid or will be paid. Where the Company has come to know through any of its Principal Officers of the death of any member, the Company shall within a month of the receipt of such knowledge, furnish to the Assistant Controller, or Deputy Controller of Estate Duty, who is exercising the functions of the Income Tax Officer in the case of the Company such particulars as may be prescribed by the Estate duty Rules, 1953.

- (i) On the death of a member, the survivor or survivors where the member was a joint holder, and his nominee or nominees or legal representatives where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the company as having any title to his interest in the shares.
- (ii) Nothing in clause (i) shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.

40.

- (i) Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect, either—
  - (a) to be registered himself as holder of the share; or
  - (b) to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or insolvent member could have made.
- (c) If such person shall elect to have his nominee registered.
- (ii) The Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as it would have had, if the deceased or insolvent member had transferred the share before his death or insolvency.

- (i) If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered as holder of the share himself, he shall deliver or send to the company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.
- (ii) If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share, he shall testify that election by executing in favour of his nominee an instrument of transfer in accordance with the provisions, herein contained, and until he does so, he shall not be freed from any liability in respect of shares.
- (iii) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Articles relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or insolvency of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member.

42. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death, lunacy, bankruptcy or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company:

Provided that the Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

43. If the Board refuses to register the transfer of, or the transmission by operation of law of the right to any share, the Company shall, within 30 days from the date on which the instrument of transfer or the intimation of such transmission as the case may be was lodged with the Company, send to the transferee and the transferor or to the person giving intimation of such transmission, as the case may be, notice of such refusal.

44. A person entitled to a share by transmission, subject to the right of Directors to retain such dividend or money as hereinafter provided, be entitled to receive may give a discharge for any dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the share.
45. The Company shall incur no liability or responsibility whatever in consequence of its registering or giving effect to any transfer of shares made or purporting to be made by any apparent legal owner thereof (as shown or appearing in the Register of Members) to the prejudice of persons having or claiming any equitable right, title or interest to or in the said shares, notwithstanding that the Company may have had notice of such equitable right, title or interest or notice prohibiting registration of such transfer, and may have entered such notice, or referred thereto in any book of the Company, and the Company shall not be bound or required to regard or attend or give effect to any notice which may be given to it of any equitable right, title or interest or be under any liability whatsoever for refusing or neglecting to do, though it may have been entered or referred to in some book of the Company; but the Company shall nevertheless be at liberty to regard and attend to any such notice; and give effect thereto if the Board shall so think fit.

Forfeiture of shares

46. If a member fails to pay any call, or instalment of a call, on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest not exceeding 10% per annum which may have accrued.
47. The notice aforesaid shall—
- (a) name a further day (not being earlier than the expiry of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made; and
  - (b) state that, in the event of non-payment on or before the day so named, the shares in respect of which the call was made shall be liable to be forfeited.
48. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared or any other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited share and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
49. When any shares have been so forfeited, notice of the resolution shall be given to the member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture, and an entry of the forfeiture, with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register, but no forfeiture shall in any manner be invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid.
- 50.
- (i) A forfeited share shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Board thinks fit. The forfeiture of a share involves extinction at the time of the forfeiture, of all interests in and all claims and demands against the Company, in respect of the shares and all other rights incidental to the share, except only such of those rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.

- (ii) At any time before a sale or disposal as aforesaid, the Board may cancel the forfeiture on such terms as it thinks fit. Upon any sale, re-allotment or other disposal of the forfeited shares, the certificate or certificates originally issued in respect of the relative shares shall (unless the same shall on demand by the Company have been previously surrendered to it by the defaulting member) stand cancelled and become null and void and have no effect, and the Directors shall be entitled to issue a new certificate in respect of a said shares to the person or persons entitled thereto.

- (i) A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the company all monies which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the company in respect of the shares.
- (ii) The liability of such person shall cease if and when the company shall have received payment in full of all such monies in respect of the shares.

- (i) A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a director, the manager or the secretary of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.
- (ii) The company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of;
- (iii) The transferee shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share; and
- (iv) The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.

53. The provisions of these Articles as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Alteration of Capital

54. The company may, from time to time, by ordinary resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as may be specified in the resolution.
55. Subject to the provisions of section 61 of the Act, the company may, by ordinary resolution,—
- (a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;
- (b) convert all or any of its fully paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert that stock into fully paid up shares of any denomination;
- (c) sub-divide its existing shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum;
- (d) cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.

56. Where shares are converted into stock,—

- (a) the holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner as, and subject to the same regulations under which, the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit: Provided that the Board may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so, however, that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
- (b) the holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the company, and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose; but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.
- (c) such of the regulations of the company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words “share” and “shareholder” in those regulations shall include “stock” and “stockholder” respectively.

57. The company may, by special resolution, reduce in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorised and consent required by law,—

- (a) its share capital;
- (b) any capital redemption reserve account; or
- (c) any share premium account.

Reduction of Capital

58. The Company may reduce its share capital as per the applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 or Companies Act, 1956, as may be applicable for the time being in force.

Capitalisation of Profits

59.

- (i) The company in general meeting may, upon the recommendation of the Board, resolve—
  - (a) that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the company’s reserve accounts, or to the credit of the profit and loss account, or otherwise available for distribution; and
  - (b) that such sum be accordingly set free for distribution in the manner specified in clause (ii) amongst the members who would have been entitled thereto, if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions.

Buy-back of Shares

60. Notwithstanding anything contained in these articles but subject to the provisions of sections 68 to 70 of the Act and any other applicable provision of the Act and rules made thereunder and provisions framed in this regard by the SEBI and under Applicable Laws for the time being in force, the company may purchase its own shares or other specified securities.

General meetings

61. All general meetings other than the annual general meeting shall be called extra-ordinary general meeting.

62.

- (i) The Board may, whenever it thinks fit, call an Extra-Ordinary General Meeting.
- (ii) The Board shall at the requisition made by such number of members who hold, on the date of the receipt of the requisitions, not less than one-tenth of such of the total paid-up capital of the Company as on that date carries the right to vote call an extra-ordinary general meeting of the company in the manner provided under Section 100 of the Act. Where two or more persons hold any shares jointly, a requisition or notice calling a meeting signed by first holder or any of the joint holder, if not signed by first holder, for the purpose of this Article, have the same force and effect as if it had been signed by all of them. The requisition made by the members shall set out the matters for the consideration of which the meeting is to be called and shall be signed by the requisitionists and sent to the registered office of the company.

63. In addition to any other meetings, Annual General Meeting of the Company shall be held in each year within such intervals as are specified in Section 96 (1) of the Act, and, subject to the provisions of Section 96 (2) of the Act, at such times and places as may be determined by the Board.

64. The Company shall comply with the provisions of Section 111 of the Act as to giving notice of resolutions and circulating statements on the requisition of members.

65. Save as is provided in Section 101 (1) of the Act, not less than clear twenty one days' notice either in writing or through electronic mode shall be given for calling General Meeting of the Company. The general meeting may be called after giving shorter notice if the consent is given in writing or by Electronic Mode by not less than ninety-five percent of the members entitled to vote at such meeting. Every notice of the meeting shall specify the place, date, day and hour of the meeting and shall contain a statement of the business to be transacted thereat.

Where any such business consists of "special business" as hereinafter defined there shall be annexed to the notice a statement complying with the provisions of Section 102 of the Act.

Notice of every meeting of the Company shall be given to every member of the Company, legal representative of any deceased member or the assignee of an insolvent member, auditor or auditors of the company and every director of the company.

Any accidental omission to give any such notice to or the non-receipt thereof by any member or other person who is entitled to such notice shall not invalidate the proceeding of the meeting.

Proceedings at General Meetings

66. The ordinary business of an Annual General Meeting shall be to receive and consider the profit and loss account, the Balance Sheet and the reports of the Directors and of the Auditors, to elect Directors in the place of those retiring by rotation, to appoint auditors and to fix their remuneration and to declare dividends. All other business transacted at an Annual General Meeting and all business transacted at any other meeting shall be deemed special business. No General Meeting shall be competent to discuss or transact any special business which has not been specifically stated in the notice of the meeting.

67. The chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside as chairman at every General Meeting of the Company. If there is no such Chairman or if at any meeting he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or is unwilling to act as Chairman, the members present shall choose another Director as Chairman, and if no Director be present or if all the Directors decline to Chair the meeting, then the members present shall choose one of them to be Chairman.
68. Any act or resolution which, under these articles and the Act is permitted or required to be done or passed by the Company in General Meeting, shall be sufficiently done or passed if effected by an Ordinary Resolution as defined in Section 114 (1) of the Act unless either the Act or the Articles specifically require such act to be done or resolution to be passed by a specific majority or by Special Resolution as defined in Section 114 (2) of the Act.
69. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as otherwise provided herein, the quorum for the general meetings shall be as provided in Section 103 of the Act.

Adjournment of Meeting

70. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting, if called upon the requisition of members, shall stand cancelled; but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or to such other day and such time and place as the Board may determine and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, the members present, shall be a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called. The Company shall give not less than three days' notice to the members either individually or by publishing an advertisement in the newspapers in terms of sub-section (3) of section 103 of the Act.
- 71.
- (i) The Chairman of a General Meeting may with the consent of the meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- (ii) When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as provided in the Articles, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

Voting Rights

- (iii) At any general meeting, a resolution put to vote shall be decided in the manner as prescribed in the provisions of Section 107, 108, 109 and other applicable provisions of the Act and rules made thereunder.

Proxy

72. The instrument appointing a proxy and power of attorney or other authority; if any, under which it is signed, or a notarised copy of that power of attorney or authority, shall be deposited at the office of the company not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
73. Every instrument of proxy whether for a specified meeting or otherwise shall, as nearly as circumstances will admit, be in the form set out in the rules made under section 105 of the Act.
74. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal, or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given. Provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Company at its office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.

Board of Directors

75. The number of Directors of the Company shall not be less than three and not more than fifteen including woman director. The company may appoint more than fifteen directors after passing a special resolution.
76. The following shall be the first directors:
1. Mr. Anil Sarin
  2. Mr. Amar Sarin
  3. Mrs. Sharda Sarin
77. Save as otherwise provided in the Act and herein the articles, every director shall be appointed by the Company in the general meeting.
78. Subject to the provisions of section 152, an independent director shall hold office for a term up to five consecutive years on the board of the Company and shall be eligible for the re-appointment on passing of a special resolution by the Company subject to such term of appointment as approved by the Board. Such Independent Directors shall not hold office for more than two consecutive terms, but such independent directors shall be eligible for appointment after expiration of three years of ceasing to become an independent director.
79. Any director nominated by any financial institution in pursuance of the provisions of any law for the time being in force, or of any agreement, or appointed by any government, or any other person to represent its interests, shall not be considered as independent director in terms of the provisions of the Act.
80. If it is provided by any trust deed securing or otherwise in connection with any issue of debentures of the Company that any person or persons shall have power to nominate a Director of the Company then in the case of any and every such issue of debentures, the persons having such power may exercise such power, from time to time and appoint a Director accordingly. Any Director so appointed is herein referred to a Debenture Director. A Debenture Director may be removed from office at any time by the person or persons in whom for the time being is vested the power under which he was appointed and another Director may be appointed in his place. A Debenture Director shall not be liable to retire by rotation.

81. In the course of its business and for its benefit the Company shall, subject to the provisions of the Act, be entitled to agree with any person, firm, corporation, government, financing institution or other authority that he or it shall have the right to appoint his or its nominee on the Board of Directors of the Company upon such terms and conditions as the Directors may deem fit. Such nominees and their successors in office appointed under these Articles shall be called Special Directors. Special Director shall be entitled to hold office until requested to retire by the government, authority, person, firm, institution or corporation who may have appointed them and will not be bound to retire by rotation. As and whenever a Special Director vacates office whether upon request as aforesaid or by death, resignation or otherwise the government, authority, person, firm, institution or corporation how appointed such Special Director may if the agreement so provide, appoint Director in his place.
82. Every nomination, appointment or removal of a special director shall be in writing and shall in the case of a government or authority be under the hand of secretary to such government or authority and in the case of a corporation under the hand of a director of such corporation duly authorized in that behalf by a resolution of its board of directors. Subject as aforesaid a Special Director shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges and be subject to the same obligation as any other director of the company.
83. Remuneration of directors
- (i) The remuneration of the directors shall, in so far as it consists of a monthly payment, be deemed to accrue from day-to-day. The Company may pay remuneration to its directors including managing director, whole time director and manager in compliance with the provisions of section 197 of the Act, which shall not exceed 11% of the net profit during the financial year. In case of inadequate profit or loss, the Company may pay such remuneration not exceeding the limits as prescribed under schedule V of the Act after complying with the provisions of that schedule.
- (ii) The company may pay sitting fees to its director (other than whole time director and managing director) shall be entitled to receive such fee for every meeting of the Board or Committee thereof attended by him, as may be determined by the Board, not exceeding such sum as may, from time to time be permissible pursuant to applicable provisions of the Act. The Company may pay differential sitting fees to the directors but such fees shall not be in excess of that of sitting fees paid to Independent Director and woman director. The sitting fees shall not form part of the remuneration as provided in the Act.
- (iii) In addition to the remuneration payable to them in pursuance of the Act, the directors may be paid all travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them—
- (a) in attending and returning from meetings of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof or general meetings of the company; or
- (b) in connection with the business of the company.

84. The company may exercise the powers conferred on it by section 88 with regard to the keeping of a foreign register; and the Board may (subject to the provisions of that section) make and vary such regulations as it may think fit for keeping of any such register.
85. All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, hundis, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for monies paid to the company, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed, or otherwise executed, as the case may be, by such person and in such manner as the Board shall from time to time by resolution determine.
86. Every director present at any meeting of the Board or of a committee thereof shall sign his name in a book to be kept for that purpose.
87. The office of a Director shall ipso facto become vacant as provided in the Act and rules made there under.
88. The Directors shall not be required to hold any qualification shares in the Company.

Rotation of Directors

89. Not less than two thirds of the total number of Directors shall be persons whose office shall be liable to retire by rotation.
90. At each Annual General Meeting of the Company one third of such of the Directors for the time being as are liable to retire by rotation, or if their number is not three or a multiple of three, then the number nearest to one third shall retire from office.
91. The independent directors shall not be liable to retire by rotation.
92. The Directors to retire by rotation at every Annual General Meeting shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment, but as between persons who became Directors on the same day, those to retire shall in default of and subject to any agreement among themselves, be determined by lot.
93. Save as permitted by Section 162 of the Act, every resolution of a General Meeting for the appointment of a Director shall relate to one named individual only.
94. The Company at the Annual General Meeting at which a Director retires by rotation may by resolution, fill the vacant office by appointing the retiring Director or some other person thereto.

If the place of the retiring Director is not so filled and the meeting has not expressly resolved to leave the vacancy unfilled, meeting shall stand adjourned until the same day in the next week, at the same time, and place, or if that day is a national holiday until the next succeeding day which is not a holiday, at the same time and place. If at the adjourned meeting the place of the retiring Director is still not filled and that meeting has as yet not expressly resolved to fill the said vacancy, the retiring Director shall be deemed to have been reappointed at the adjourned meeting unless:

- (a) at that meeting or at the previous meeting a resolution for the reappointment of such Director has been put to the vote and lost; or

- (b) the retiring Director has by notice in writing addressed to the Company or the Board of Directors, expressed his unwillingness to be reappointed; or
- (c) he is not qualified or is disqualified for appointment; or
- (d) a resolution, whether special or ordinary is required for his appointment or reappointment by virtue of any provisions of the Act and has not been passed; or

Casual Vacancy

95. The Company may, subject to the provisions of Section 169 of the Act, by ordinary resolution of which a special notice has been given to, remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard. The person so appointed shall hold office until the date up to which his predecessor would have held office if he had not been so removed. If the vacancy created by the removal of a Director under the provisions of this Article is not so filled by the meeting at which he is removed, the Board may any time thereafter fill such vacancy under the provisions of Section 169 but the director who was removed in that meeting shall not be re-appointed as a director by the board of directors.
96. If any Director appointed by the Company in General Meeting vacates his office as a Director before the expiry of his term of office, the vacancy may be filled by the Board at a meeting of the Board, but any person so appointed shall retain his office only so long as the vacating Director would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred; provided that the Board may not fill such a vacancy by appointing there to any person who has been removed from the office of Director under Section 169
However, any intermittent vacancy of an independent director shall be filled-up by the Board at the earliest but not later than immediate next Board meeting or three months from the date of such vacancy, whichever is later
97. No person not being a retiring Director shall be eligible for appointment to the office of Director at any General Meeting unless he or some member intending to propose him has, not less than fourteen days before the meeting, left at the office a notice in writing under his hand signifying his candidature for the office of Director or the intention of such member to propose him as a candidate for that office as the case may be.

Alternate Directors

98. The Board may appoint any person (not necessarily a member of the Company but not being a person holding alternate directorship for any other person in the company) to act as alternate Director for a Director during the latter's absence for a period of not less than three months from India. In case the absent director is an Independent Director then the alternate director to be appointed in place such director shall also be independent in terms of the provisions of the Act. The alternate director shall not hold office for a period longer than that permissible to the director in whose place he has been appointed and shall vacate the office if and when the director in whose place he has been appointed returns to India.

Proceedings of the Board

99. (i) Minimum Number of meetings

A meeting of the Board of Directors shall hold minimum of four meetings of its board of directors every year in such a manner that not more than one hundred and twenty days shall intervene between two consecutive meetings of the board.

(ii) Notice of Board Meeting

Notice of every meeting of the board shall be given in writing to every Director at his registered address, at least seven days before the meeting of the board and such notice shall be sent by hand delivery or by post or courier or by electronic means. The notice of the board meeting shall include the list of transactions or items proposed to be discussed at the meeting of the board and also include such other matters as may be prescribed in the rules made thereunder. The Board meeting may be called at shorter notice to transact the urgent business subject to the condition that at least one independent director shall be present at the meeting and in case of absence of independent director from such meeting, decisions taken shall be circulated to all the directors and shall be final on ratification thereof by atleast one independent director.

(iii) Participation in the Board Meeting

Subject to provisions of Section 173 of the Act and rules made in this regard, a director may attend the meeting in the manner as prescribed under the rules thereto.

100. A director may at any time and the Secretary shall, upon the request of a Director, convene a meeting of the Board.

Chairman of the Company

101. The Board shall appoint one of their member to be the Chairman of the Board and may determine the period for which he will hold office. The Chairman shall have only such duties and responsibilities as are specifically assigned to him from time to time by the Board. In exercising all his powers and responsibilities as the Chairman of the Board, the Chairman will be guided at all times by the Board of the Company. The Directors shall have the power to appoint any one of their member to be the Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors, who shall be entitled to take the Chair at any meeting at which the Chairman is absent. If at any meeting of the Board, neither the Chairman nor the Vice Chairman is present, within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Directors present shall choose one of their member to be the Chairman for such meeting. The Board may appoint Managing Director or Chief Executive Officer as Chairperson/ Chairman of the Company.

Quorum

102. Subject to the provisions of Section 174 of the Act, the quorum necessary for the transaction of the business by the Board shall be one-third of its total strength [any fraction contained in that one-third being rounded off as one], or two Directors, whichever is higher. Subject to the provisions of Section 174 of the Act, any Director attending a meeting of the Board by means of video conferencing or other audio visual means shall be counted in a quorum for such meeting. For the purpose of this Article an alternate director shall be counted in a quorum at a meeting at which the Director for whom he is appointed is not present. If a quorum shall not be present within fifteen minutes from the time appointed for holding a meeting of the Board, the meeting shall be adjourned until such date and time as the Chairman of the Board or the meeting shall fix. Provided that where at any time the number of interested Directors exceeds or is equal to two-third of the total strength, the number of remaining Directors, that is to say, the number of Directors who are not interested, present at the meeting being not less than two shall be the quorum during such time.

103. A meeting of the Board at which a quorum be present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions by or under these Articles for the time being vested in or exercisable by the Board.

104. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority vote and, in case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

- (i) A committee shall be constituted in the manner as provided in the Act and elect a Chairperson of its meetings.
- (ii) If no such Chairperson is elected, or if at any meeting the Chairperson is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present may choose one of their members to be Chairperson of the meeting.

106.

- (i) A committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks fit.
- (ii) Questions arising at any meeting of a committee shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present, and in case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson shall have a second or casting vote.

Validity of acts of the Director

107. All or any act done by a person as a Director shall be valid, notwithstanding that it may afterwards be discovered that his appointment was invalid by reason of any defect or disqualification or had terminated by virtue of any provision contained in the Act or in these Articles; provided that nothing in this Article shall be deemed to give validity to acts done by a Director after his appointment has been shown to the Company to be invalid or to have been terminated.

Resolution by Circulation

- (i) No resolution shall be deemed to have been duly passed by the Board or by a committee thereof by circulation, unless the resolution has been circulated in draft, together with the necessary papers, if any, to all the directors, or members of the committee, as the case may be, at their addresses registered with the company in India by hand delivery or by post or by courier, or through electronic means (includes e-mail or fax) and has been approved by a majority of the directors or members, who are entitled to vote on the resolution.
- (ii) The chairperson shall put the resolution to be decided at a meeting of the Board where not less than one-third of the total number of directors of the company for the time being requires that any resolution under circulation must be decided at a meeting.

Minutes

109. The Board shall, in accordance with the provisions of the Act and rules made there under, cause Minutes to be kept by making within thirty days of the conclusion of every meeting of the Board or of every Committee of the Board, entries thereof in books kept for the purpose with their pages consecutively numbered, each page of every such book being initialled or signed and last page of the record of proceedings of each meeting in such books being dated and signed, in the case of minutes of proceedings of a meeting of the Board or Committee thereof, by the Chairman of the said Meeting or the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting, and, in the case of minutes or proceedings of a General Meeting, by the Chairman of the same meeting within the aforesaid period of thirty days or in the event of the death or inability of the Chairman within that period, by a Director duly authorised by the Board for the purpose, provided that in no case shall the minutes or proceedings of a meeting be attached to such books as aforesaid by pasting or otherwise.

110. The minutes shall contain particulars:

- (a) of the names of the Directors present at each meeting of the Board and of any Committee of the Board and in the case of each resolution passed at the meeting, the names of the Directors, if any, dissenting from or not concurring in the resolution;
- (b) of all orders made by the Board and Committee of the Board;
- (c) of all appointments of officers made at any of the meetings of the Board or Committee of the Board.

111. The Minutes of each meeting shall contain a fair and correct summary of the proceedings thereat.

Provided that no matter need be included in any such Minutes which the Chairman of the meeting, in his absolute discretion, considers to be:

- (a) defamatory, or could reasonably be regarded as, defamatory of any person;
- (b) irrelevant or immaterial to the proceedings; or
- (c) detrimental to the interests of the Company.

112. Minutes of any meeting of the Board or Committee thereof, or of the Company in General meeting, kept in accordance with the provisions of the Section 118 of the Act, shall be evidence of the proceedings recorded in such Minutes. The Minute Books of General Meetings of the Company shall be kept at the office and shall be open to inspection by members on any working day for at least 2 hours as determined by the Board. A member shall be entitled to a copy of any minutes of any general meeting, on payment of INR 10 per page or part of any page. Such copy shall be provided within seven working days after receipt of request by the company.

Powers of the Board

113. The board of directors shall be entitled to exercise all such powers and to do all such acts and things as the Company is authorised to exercise to do, subject to the provisions of the Act or any other Statute or the Memorandum of the Company or these Articles or otherwise, to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meetings.

No regulations made by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the board which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.

114. Without prejudice to the general powers conferred by the proceedings, Articles and powers conferred by these Articles and subject to the provisions of Section 180 and other applicable provisions of the Act, the Board of Directors shall have the following powers, that is to say:
